IF POINDEXTER PULLS OUT OF THE RACE, BAILEY WILL SUPPORT COLQUITT

foolish policy, certainly not Mr. Bailey, least of all. It is said that Mr. Colquitt does not have any expectation of receiving the support of many of the prohibitionists who are followers of Bailey. In fact, it would be strange, indeed, if he received votes from any of that element, unless, perchance, they should get out of the way and the Bailey question become highly intensified.

Matters were therefore getting along very smoothly for Mr. Colquitt until he precipitated the Bailey issue and thereby threatened to put prohibition in the background. If the voting in the primaries is done strictly upon that proposition the result is highly problematical, providing all the four candidates remain in the race to the end.

Radical Elements Strong.
The extremely radical elements of the anti and prohibition Democrats are not large. Roughly speaking they are about equal in numbers. The vast majority of Democrats in the state are not enthusiastic either for or against statewide prohibition. They would much prefer to see the state's development and industrial progress made the predominant factor in the campaign. It is estimated that probably not to exceed 50,000 Democratic voters of the state are radicals, either on one side or the other, when it comes to the matter of statewide prohibition.

The remainder of the suffragists of that party have their views on the subject and will so express them in the polls if the issue is put up to them squarely. But with the injection of Baileyism into the campaign where will the masses of these voters land on the day of the primaries? That is the question that is disturbing Colquitt and Johnson.

New Alignment, Maybe.
If the issue is to receive itself down to the proposition of endorsing or rebuking Mr. Bailey there will be a new and pronounced alignment of the followers of the different candidates, according to the views of men who have made a study of politics in this state.

Mr. Davidson has nothing to lose by forcing the Bailey issue, it is claimed. He entered the campaign on a platform different from that of any of the other candidates. He is said to have felt that he could depend upon the support of a good share of the anti-prohibitionists who had stood by him in previous campaigns. It is an open secret that it was the support of the anti-prohibitionists that elected him to the senate.

Mr. Davidson denies that he is forcing the Bailey issue. He claims that it was forced upon him by the senator, and in support of this statement he recites the alleged slanderous letters that Mr. Bailey wrote him and Mr. Johnson. The letter says, however, that he is not mad about what Mr. Bailey wrote and he thinks the issue would be left out of the campaign. It is proving a big rallying cry for Davidson, and the developments of the last few days portend that the other candidates will necessarily have to take it up and make the best of it, on one side or the other.

Read What Prominent Doctors From All Parts of the Country Say About Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

These Letters Are a Few of Those Received From

Eminent Doctors Who Have Obtained Uniformly

Good Results in Their Practice From the Use of This Great Tonic Stimulant and Renewer of Youth.

Pure and Satisfactory Stimulant

"I have given Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey a trial and have also presented samples of it to several friends, and our unanimous opinion is that it gives every evidence of being a thoroughly pure and satisfactory stimulant. I expect to use it after to keep your excellent whiskey always on hand. Permit me to declare my belief that where an alcoholic stimulant is indicated your whiskey is the best I have found." W. R. C. Latson, M. D., 600 Riverside Drive, New York, N. Y.

An Ideal Remedy.

"I am very well acquainted with Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and consider it equal to the best in the market for medicinal purposes wherever a stimulant is indicated. It is a pure, palatable and very beneficial stimulant and is the ideal remedy for acute catarrhal troubles and menstrual irregularities, for which I have prescribed it for many years." Dr. Edw. C. Tinsley, 1117 E. 19th St., Indianapolis, Ind.

A True Medicinal Whiskey.

"It was indelibly impressed on my mind years ago that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey was the only true medicinal whiskey and especially beneficial in Gastric troubles and in Typhoid cases. I use a great deal of it as a tonic in Convalescent Typhoid and Gastric Fever patients. Feeling assured you will keep Duffy's Malt up to the standard at the top which it has always had, I am, sir, Thomas D. Love, M. D., 19 E. Fair St., Atlanta, Ga.

Safe for the Stomach.

"I put to good use a bottle of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey in the case of a mild and feeble lady who needed a mild and pure and simple. She used it with great benefit. A stimulant like your malt that does not disturb the stomach is useful in a physician's practice. I consider it a pure malt product. It is not the use but the abuse of whiskey, and other things which has condemned their use by the physicians as well as the laity, but when used suffering humanity does without them." A. G. Hopkins, M. D., Burlington, Ia.

Old Age and Typhoid.

"I assure you that in my practice I will continue prescribing Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, especially in the aged and generally run down cases. I find it highly nourishing and stimulating after typhoid invasions. I cheerfully recommend same for tubercular lung and to sustain patient during critical periods of pneumonia and during exhaustion." E. J. Weitenberger, M. D., 952 Russell St., Detroit, Mich.

Many people are wondering where Mr. Colquitt will find himself when this development of the situation is known. His friends claim that his organization is as near perfect as can be made and that his followers cannot be taken from him no matter how prominent the Bailey question becomes.

Naturalists.
The most interesting feature of the race for governor and it is conceded to be yet an open race. Those not interested in the outcome more than simply as citizens will not follow every word he said about the sentiment stands now any one may be the choice of the people.

Thomas Leading.
For Lieutenant governor the indications are that H. Bascom Thomas is leading. The other candidates are splitting the opposition vote and Thomas undoubtedly has a great following among the farmers of the state and the middle class of citizens, who believe every word he said about the members of the legislature was so and who really believe that he has been made a martyr to politics.

It is generally conceded that Robinson for land commissioner and Sam Sparks for the most interesting feature of the race for governor and it is conceded to be yet an open race. Those not interested in the outcome more than simply as citizens will not follow every word he said about the sentiment stands now any one may be the choice of the people.

Believing Flight Hot.
The fight for railroad commissioner is a warm one. William D. Williams for the unexpired term in contest, while three are opposing Allison Mayfield, Blake and Dashiell are strong men, but with the vote divided between them it is believed that Mayfield will land in his old job.

For judge of the court of criminal appeals the fight is an open one. Felix J. McCord is a Campbell appointee and the enemies of the administration are making a hard fight to prevent him being named. The vote will probably be all in before the winner of that race can be determined.

The July primaries will be held on the 23rd, and there is more than a month in which to make a hard campaign. The indications are that from now on the woods will be full of politics seeking the elusive votes.
